

Change of Company Name to Hydrix Limited

The Company is pleased to announce that following shareholder approval received at its recent Annual General Meeting, the Company has changed its name from Panorama Synergy Ltd to “Hydrix Limited”.

The new name reflects the current and future operations of the Group, following the Company’s acquisition of the Hydrix business in November 2017. The change will not, in itself, affect the legal status of the Company or any of its assets or liabilities.

The Company also confirms that its ASX issuer code has changed from “PSY” to “HYD”.
